Good morning Queens Metro, today is Friday, January 17th and these are your morning announcements.

The SAT word of the day is – ulterior – adj – beyond what is obvious or evident

Used in a sentence: She must have some ulterior motive for being nice to me – what does she really want?

Metro is celebrating its 10th Anniversary this year! That's right Metro, this year, QMHS turns 10 years old! We will be celebrating this milestone by hosting a Talent Showcase. Auditions will be held on Thursday, January 30th and Thursday, February 6th. You can sign up for either date through the Google Form emailed to you.

Also as a reminder, the Spring 2020 Club Season is quickly approaching. Our annual Spring Club Rush will be on Tuesday, February 4th. We are looking forward to seeing you all there. Students, want to start a new club? Check your email for a club application.

Our NHS is hosting their 2nd Blood Drive on February 5th. Please talk to a NHS member or teacher for more information on signing up to donate.

Metro CyborKnights Robotics is running a drive for the AFYA Foundation. They are collecting Baby Formula, Baby Diapers & Adult Diapers. They also are collecting clean used bed sheets, clean used blankets and used rain boots. These items will go to hospitals in need around the world:
  ➢ There will be a donation box as you enter the building, please show your support!
  ➢ The drive will be open for donations until February 7th.

As a reminder, next week is Regents week. There is no school on Monday in observance of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr's birthday, and Regents begin on Tuesday. Students only attend school during Regents week if they are taking an exam or if invited by a teacher to make up work.   There is no school for students on Monday, January 27th this is a clerical day for staff. All students return on Tuesday, January 28th for the start of the 2nd term.

Congratulations to the girls JV Basketball team for defeating Bryant yesterday 32-21. Shoutout to AJ with 10 points. Way to go ladies!

Go Knights!
